MOLLY: MINUTES AFTER MURDER

Ralph Riegel
IN NORTH CAROLINA

THIS is the shocking photograph of Molly Martens just minutes after she murdered her husband Jason Corbett.

Bloodstains are clearly visible on her head and face as she stands outside her home in blue patterned pyjamas and draped in a fur coat.

The exclusive picture was taken shortly after dad-of-two Jason was pronounced dead having suffered a prolonged and vicious assault at the hands of Molly and her father Thomas.

Never-before-seen photos released by the District Attorney's Office also include the blood-soaked baseball bat and brick that were used in the brutal murder.
