

IRISH DAILY STAR

8-PAGE SOCCER PULLOUT STARTS PAGE 29

You can't blame fed-up Jose DUNPHY EXCLUSIVE PAGES 32&33

A BJORN GAMBLER
SEE SPORT

RYDER CUP 2018

39 IS FEARR AN STAR
Friday September 28 2018 €1.50 (inc vat)

BUM RAP DRAMA

FLY ME TO THE MOON

DEATH: Bobby Messett

THREE attacks on gym murder suspect family home

EXCLUSIVE

Michael O'TOOLE
Crime Correspondent

ARMED Garda patrols have been stepped up on the family home of the man accused of the Bray boxing club murder of Bobby Messett — after a series of sinister attacks.

CASE: Accused Gerard Cervi; (right) Pete Taylor

The Star understands that the house linked to Gerard Cervi has been the target of three separate violent attacks, including one last night. Mr Messett was shot dead in a gym attack that also left Katie Taylor's dad Pete injured.

SEE PAGE 12

BUTT SERIOUSLY: A man is tackled on the runway; (below) accused Patrick Kehoe moons media at court in Dublin; (right) leaving court after his hearing

Tom TUIE

A MAN accused of flagging down a Ryanair plane on a runway at Dublin Airport dropped his trousers and mooned photographers after being hauled into court yesterday.

Wexford man Patrick Kehoe (23) faces criminal damage charges after allegedly breaking through a door and chasing after his flight to Amsterdam as it pulled away.

PAGES 4&5

PIC: Mick O'Neill

Accused 'tried to chase down flight' and flashed snappers